Join us for a full-day, week long camp, hosted by St. Andrew's Episcopal School! This camp will be run by Gary Gaiffe and a team of local chess instructors. All scholastic players are invited to register!

Cost
$570

Chess Camp includes formal instruction and play, plus a camp-wide tournament at the end of the week! Beginners learn basic chess theory, game objectives, piece movement, game and tournament rules. Intermediates study chess analysis and decision-making, tactics, checkmate patterns and tournament strategies. Advanced students are taught more sophisticated chess techniques and decision-making, complex tactics, calculated and intuitive sacrifices, opening and endgame analysis.

Registration is available on their website.
